Dear Henri:

I must say that I was somewhat overwhelmed at your most gracious and generous thoughts and expressions in your letter of November 12, 1981. You must know by now that none of the wonderful events that have occurred could have happened without that special chemistry that occurs when we talk and exchange ideas. As you so aptly said once, "when we get together, $1 + 1$ is not merely 3 but 10".

I know of no one in the musical world who is more receptive to new ideas and who can take the ideas and make them even better than when received.

Your sense of humor and enthusiasm makes all of my efforts sheer enjoyment.

I hope that in the future we can continue to create new and exciting musical adventures in Los Angeles that will measurably improve the quality of life here.

You are a loyal and devoted friend and I value those very rare qualities.

Sincerely,

EUGENE GOLDEN
